W. I. Swain Shows Will be Here In A Few Days

This well-known amusement organization appears under a mammoth waterproof tent (KANT-LEAK,) the magnitude and seating capacity of which has never been attempted by any organization visiting the Smaller cities.

The Swain Show comes heralded in advance by the most convincing and flattering press testimonials from the larger cities—press notices of promises fulfilled, pleased and enthusiastic audiences, courteous treatment, and assurances of a warm welcome on all recurring visits. This in itself is satisfying evidence of the merit of the Swain Show, which is said to present more unique and startling features of universal interest than any enterprise of a like nature that has ever toured the United States.

The personnel of the company contains names of men and women of prominence in the amusement world, people who are engaged specially for their peculiar talents to portray the parts in which they appear—actors, actresses, comedienues, singers, dancers, vaude-vill artists and a chorus of trained voices which greatly augment the lyric features of this stupendous production.

 of a community.

Dennis Officer has a smile on his face from ear to ear and says
